The Lay Academy of Theology reserves the right to cancel, postpone, and limit enrollment in its courses. Classes may be split or combined, and instructors or locations may be changed if necessary. Cancellation decisions are generally made three to five working days before the beginning of a particular course. We apologize for any inconvenience that this may cause you. Should your class cancel due to insufficient enrollment, every effort will be made to notify you. You will be given an opportunity to select another course or receive a full refund.
